

Aquafina Major League Baseball Pitch, Hit & Run

is a FREE skills competition for 7-14* year olds that is fun for all ages!

Cordova Girls Softball is hosting for the 3rd year.

This event emphasizes the fun element in softball and allows girls to showcase their pitching (throwing), hitting and running abilities. Softball Division Competitors have the opportunity to advance through three levels of competition: Locals, Super Regionals, and the National Finals.

Local Competition winners will advance to 1 of 10 Super Regional Competitions where they will one step away from the National Finals, which will be held at the 2010 Major League Baseball All Star Game in Anaheim Ca.

March 13, 2010
Mills Middle School 9 am

This event will be conducted with Rancho Cordova little league on separate fields

 Please arrive early to sign in. A waiver will need to be signed by a parent or guardian. Waivers also available on website.